AGRICOLA PUNICA

Giorgio Marone

Winemaker Consultant

Hailing from Torino, Giorgio Marone's vinous roots were planted in Tuscany and Umbria. After graduating from the University of Torino with a degree in Agriculture and a concentration in Viticulture and Enology, Giorgio became the assistant to Giacomo Tachis at Antinori from 1988-1993.

Under the tutelage of Tachis, Giorgio thrived. He soon found himself consulting for a number of estates around both regions of Tuscany and Umbria. Giorgio's attention to detail and attuned sensibilities as a master of assemblage brings new life to the Agricola Punica estate.
