

Niccolò Marzichi Lenzi

Managing Director

Niccolò Marzichi Lenzi is a prominent figure at Tenuta di Biserno, a prestigious winery located in Tuscany, Italy. The winery was founded by brothers Lodovico and Piero Antinori, legendary names in the Italian wine industry, and as their nephew, Niccolò has been instrumental in upholding the family's tradition of excellence while integrating modern techniques and sustainable practices in viticulture. He plays a vital role in the management and promotion of the estate, which is renowned for its production of high-quality wines.

Tenuta di Biserno is celebrated for its Bordeaux-style blends, crafted from grape varieties like Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Petit Verdot, grown in the unique terroir of the Bibbona region. Under Niccolò Marzichi Lenzi's guidance, the winery continues to gain recognition for its meticulous winemaking and commitment to quality, appealing to connoisseurs worldwide. His leadership reflects a deep respect for tradition while embracing innovation, ensuring Tenuta di Biserno remains at the forefront of Italian winemaking.
