

Ranieri Orsini

Director of Production

Ranieri Orsini is a key figure associated with Tenuta di Biserno, a prestigious winery located in Tuscany's Bibbona region. As part of the team at this esteemed estate, he contributes to maintaining its reputation for producing exceptional Bordeaux-style wines. His role involves overseeing critical aspects of the winery's operations, ensuring that the unique terroir and meticulous winemaking techniques are reflected in every bottle.

Tenuta di Biserno, founded by the legendary brothers Lodovico and Piero Antinori, is known for its high-quality blends featuring grapes like Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Petit Verdot. Ranieri Orsini plays an integral part in upholding the estate's legacy of excellence, combining traditional practices with modern innovation to create wines that capture the essence of the Tuscan landscape. His expertise and dedication contribute significantly to the winery's continued acclaim on the global stage.
