MULLAN ROAD CELLARS

Sally Johnson Blum

Winemaker

While studying abroad in France, Sally became fascinated by the wine industry and switched paths from a career in biotechnology to pursue a Master's Deree in Enology at the University of California, Davis, which she completed in 1999. Sally's winemaking career has included eight years at St. Francis in Sonoma County, 15 years at Pride Mountain Vineyards in the Napa Valley. Among many top-scoring wines and accolades during that time, Sally was named #3 on Glamour magazine's "Top 10 Most Badass Women Winemakers" list.
