TENUTE SILVIO NARDI

Vittorio Stringari
Agronomist

Vittorio Stringari, was born in Cles, Trentino on August 31 1971. He graduated cum laude in “Forest and Agricultural Science Technology” at University of Bologna. He obtained his specialization in wine attending oenology courses at Bordeaux University on red wine quality production.

He now lives in Tuscany where he consulted for various wineries in the region: Val d’Orcia (Tenuta di Trinoro – Vini Franchetti), Maremma (Az.Agr Nittardi), Colline Pisane (Fattoria di Sangervasio). He further develop his craft working for 11 years at Tenuta Castelbuono (F.lli Lunelli) in Umbria.

He joined Tenute Silvio Nardi as in house agronomist in January 2019. He is committed to eco-friendly practices and sustainable agriculture. His philosophy is to find a symphony with various vintage cycles, always search for the vines needs and capitalize on meteorological conditions to get qualitative and productive results. His hobbies are swimming, jogging, biking and literature.