

MULLAN ROAD

Columbia Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2021

92 Points

A rich blend of raspberry sauce, crushed black cherries, cloves and lifting mint rises up effortlessly from the 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon. It's silky smooth and supple with penetrating depths of ripe red berry fruits, as hints of autumnal spice mingle with grippy tannins toward the close. This resonates with tension as a staining of primary concentration lingers, leaving a tart blackberry twang that slightly puckers the cheeks
