WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Riesling Roche Roulée 2019

93 Points

Aromas of forest floor and white pear flesh waft out of the glass, offering just a hint of petrol. This is a handsome wine, with perky acidity and white melon notes set against a backdrop of wet slate, lemon zest and evergreen trees. The finish takes an earthy turn, which only makes it feel all the more like you’re in the forest or in the presence of a very tasteful cologne. As the long finish wears on, some of that white pear reappears. It invites you to keep sipping.

Layla Schlack - September 16, 2022

© 2026 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY | www.kobrandwineandspirits.com