NORTON

91 Points

The 2021 Reserva Malbec is slightly fresher than the 2020 I tasted next to it, a nice representation of Malbec from Mendoza, mixing 50% from Valle de Uco and 50% from Luján de Cuyo that matured in used French barrels for one year for micro-oxygenation. This is a wine where they search for consistency, good ripeness, balance and elegance, integrated oak and fine tannins.
