ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Muscat Goldert Grand Cru 2019

94 Points

An aroma of dill and chives is immediate, powerful and mouthwatering. Vivid fruit—a mix of tangy nectarine and grapefruit—comes through on the palate, which has a pleasant round weight to it. Schist minerality and pulsating acidity come through to cleanse the palate, and the finish leaves you with a cooling hint of eucalyptus. This can stand up to a dish with a bit of heat; think leche de tigre ceviche.
