

Craggy Range

92 Points

Luscious berry aromas take the lead on this concentrated Pinot from one of New Zealand's best-known red producers. The florals, vanilla and toasty spice notes are just whispers for the moment. The silky palate is rich and primary, with layers of flavor that are still tightly packed in. Drink now with a decanter at hand or hold for another few years

Christina Pickard - May 13, 2024

