ALTA VISTA
Single Vineyard Temis 2018

95 Points

The 2018 Malbec Temis, usually my favorite from the single-vineyard bottlings, was sourced from a vineyard planted in 1938 in El Cepillo at 1,040 meters in altitude on limestone-rich soils. It's ripe without excess at 14.5% alcohol and feels quite classical; it's serious with some austerity, still young and undeveloped and aging at a very slow speed. It has the aromatics of the Mediterranean plants—thyme, rosemary, lavender and rockrose—and integrated oak.
